

MINING AMENDMENT IS DECLARED VICIOUS BY INTERMOUNTAIN CATHOLIC

Characterizing the proposed mining amendment to the Utah constitution as "vicious in principle" and warning the people of the state against the setting up of "another autocracy," the Intermountain Catholic, one of the leading papers of the west, says editorially:

While their sons are fighting against an autocracy over there, let Utah fathers and mothers take care that they do not with their votes create another autocracy regime and set it up at their own doors.

The so-called "mining amendment" to the constitution of the state, which will be voted upon Tuesday, proposes a step in that direction, in that it would clothe with autocratic taxing power the state board of equalization. The amendment is pernicious in principle, in that it would delegate to a board of men appointed by the governor the power to fix the tax rate for the mines within the state. It is in direct violation of a tenet of American government which was set forth at the nation's birth.

The founders of the nation declared their independence from England largely because they held that "taxation without representation is tyranny." Yet now the people of Utah are asked to vote into the hands of a board which might or might not be subservient to their wishes the arbitrary power of administering that function of government for retention of which their forefathers risked their lives, their property and their all.

The argument advanced by proponents of the measure is that its operation will cause the mines to pay more taxes. There is no assurance that it would have that effect, but the wording of the amendment plainly brings out the fact that it would make an unwarranted change in the constitution.

If the author of the amendment merely sought to make the mines pay more taxes, he operated much as does the man who burns his house to rid it of roaches.

The amendment appears on the ballot as proposition No. 3. It is vicious in principle. It should be defeated.

DR. A. S. CONDON British Scholars To Join Americans In Future Culture

Candidate for State Representative on the Republican Ticket.

Dr. Condon was born in Maine. He graduated at the East Maine Seminary. He was at the first battle of Bull Run and "kept in the war afterward." Michigan University is his professional alma mater. Dr. Condon came to Ogden as the first surgeon of the Union Pacific railroad and has been here ever since except two years as surgeon during the Spanish-American war.

He has been a member of two state legislatures and all the people say he is going back again. He has been a member of about all the state boards among them the commission that stopped the duplication of studies between high schools, colleges and universities when education was "getting on its feet to size up with such purposes in the older states."

If you are not satisfied with the raise in your taxes, brought about through Democratic administration, vote the Republican ticket.

Anne Martin on Independent Ticket For U. S. Senator

RENO, Nev., Nov. 4.—Miss Anne Martin of Reno, whose supporters credit her with carrying the state of Nevada for suffrage, is an independent candidate for the United States senate at the election tomorrow. She is opposed by Charles Belknap Henderson, democrat, who succeeded the late senator Francis G. Newlands by appointment. E. E. Roberts, republican representative in Congress, and Martin J. Scanlan, socialist.

Democrats were said to have used the fact that Roberts voted against a declaration of war with Germany as an argument against his election. Tasker L. Oddie, republican, and Emanuel D. Boyle, democrat, are candidates for governor and Sylvester S. Downer, republican, and Charles R. Evans, democrat, are seeking election to the national house of representatives.

A full ticket of state officers is to be elected.

FOLKS-OH, FOLKS!

IF YOU WANT A THRILL—A REAL STAR SPANGLED BANNER THRILL—SPEND FIFTEEN INTERESTING MINUTES WITH THESE TWO COLUMNS—AND DON'T MISS THE SEVENTH SECTION!

"Here's to our czar—last in war, first toward peace, long may he waver!" Mr. Roosevelt told his audience Monday night that REPUBLICAN CONGRESSMEN ARE IN THE HABIT OF REPEATING THIS BITTER JEST IN THE CLOAK ROOMS OF THE CAPITOL.

Experienced newspaper men have long since learned that Mr. Roosevelt is not always truthful.

So this statement may be true or it may not be true.

But, true or not, Mr. Roosevelt's remark reveals HIS OWN state of mind toward the President.

It is a bitter, sour, ugly, unfair, unpatriotic, malignant and hateful state of mind.

And Mr. Roosevelt accurately represents the opposition which is assailing the President.

Mr. Roosevelt says that he and the men who thus daily insult and belittle the President are 100 per cent loyal Americans.

If this is true, there are a lot of 100 per cent loyal Americans in jail right now.

IF THAT IS TRUE, THE SECTION OF THE ESPIONAGE ACT WHICH MAKES IT SEDITION, DURING THE WAR, TO USE SCURRILOUS AND SLANDEROUS LANGUAGE CONCERNING THE CONSTITUTION, THE GOVERNMENT AND THE FLAG AND THE UNIFORM OF THE UNITED STATES IS NULL AND VOID—AND EVERY PERSON WHO IS IN JAIL FOR VIOLATING THAT SECTION OF THE LAW IS WRONGFULLY IN JAIL.

100 PER CENT LOYALTY

If what Mr. Roosevelt says about his 100 per cent loyalty is true, then it is time to take a large number of convicts from the penitentiaries and restore them to their careers of 100 per cent loyalty.

For not one in ten of these prisoners was convicted of using language half so insulting and so scurrilous and so disloyal as the bitter and unfair and unmanly language which Mr. Roosevelt publicly states that he and his political associates habitually use in speaking of the President and his conduct of public affairs.

Now, then, we never favored the enactment of the Espionage Act in the form in which it was enacted, because we thought—and still think—that it was enacted, because we thought—and still think—that it is far better to let a few fools talk foolishly when and where they please than that there should be any infringement at all upon the freedom of speech, which is the fundamental basis of all our liberties.

But Mr. Roosevelt clamored for this law and for even more drastic control of printing and speech, and Mr. Roosevelt's associates in politics enacted this law by their votes.

And we say emphatically it is a shame to justice that hundreds of ill-informed or unbalanced men and women of the poorer classes should be thrust into jail for violating this law while men of position and political influence, incited and protected by the great profiteering trusts, daily and nightly violate the same law with impunity.

The American voters do not have it in their own power to inflict a prison penalty, which Mr. Roosevelt and his kind deserve, but they certainly do have it in their power to rebuke in an effective manner the insulting and unfair attacks which Mr. Roosevelt and his political associates are making upon the President.

TUESDAY IS THE DAY

You folks can show these men exactly what you think of their conduct and exactly what you think of the President by going to the polls next Tuesday and electing a Congress that will back up the President and that will gladly be led by the President, and that will tell Mr. Roosevelt and his Congressmen following that the negotiations of peace will be entrusted to the same hands which have directed the conduct of our victorious war—the strong hands of Woodrow Wilson.

PATRIOTISM IS THE ISSUE

The issue has risen far above any plane of partisanship.

It has become an issue of American patriotism.

No sensible man wanted to see such an issue raised.

But the little group of Republican leaders headed by Roosevelt would have it that way.

They forced that issue.

Very well, folks, let them have it that way.

If they choose to insist that their patriotism is of a better brand than the

EXPENSES OF THE CANDIDATES GERMAN ARMIES ARE UNBEATEN

Affidavits of expenses incurred during the political campaign were filed Saturday by Socialists and Democrats. The Socialists showed no expense excepting in the instance of O. A. Kennedy, candidate for state representative, who expended $22.40. He received $1 from the local Socialist committee toward these expenses, he certified.

The Democratic committee expense was certified as $511.87. Individual expenses itemized by the various candidates follows:

P. M. Folkman, $54.50; Mrs. E. M. Conroy, $54.50; Katherine L. Higgins, $144; D. D. McKay, $50; Washington Jenkins, $20; John M. Child, $129.75; Owen M. Sanderson, $32; H. C. Peterson, $76; Joseph B. Bates, $20; Charles M. Ramey, $119; D. H. Ensign, $128; David W. Evans, $17.25.

"There are days when no officer of the general staff can gain access to the emperor. These are days of acute pessimism, passed by the monarch almost entirely in prayer and Bible readings."

German People Want Peace. "The German people want peace at once and at all costs. They have had enough of war."

Another cause of anxiety is the separatist movement which has become very serious lately. The talk through all south Germany now is: "Let us separate from Prussia."

Bavaria Against Prussia. "Bavaria is the worst. There every one, even the soldiers, may insult Prussia without provoking a word of defense in our behalf. The Bavarian press employs the same tone and we are beginning to think that this is desired by the Bavarian army which will make no further effort. Their attitude is an enigma."

There appears to be no military necessity for conclusion of peace now, in spite of constant retirement of our forces since the middle of July, and this is the opinion of the majority of my comrades on different staffs.

Hoped for Favorable Peace. "We thought generally our retreat on Siegfried positions would continue till winter, in the meantime weakening the enemy by our stubborn resistance. We would have utilized the winter, while our diplomats would have entered into negotiations that would surely have terminated in a favorable peace for us."

Abandonment of Alsace-Lorraine territory, evacuation of Russian territory and creation of a Polish kingdom.

are equivalent to the ruin of Germany, taking from us raw materials of Alsace-Lorraine which are indispensable to our industries and markets that we aim to create in the east.

"In consequence there will be stoppage of a great part of our industries for several years, impoverishment of the working class, interior troubles, separations and complete upheaval."

Facing Complete Annihilation. "Then our enemies will have what they have desired—complete annihilation of Germany. That would be peace due to Scheidemann."

"We thought our present retreat would end on a position chosen by us; that war would finally terminate by success of our arms at some part of the front with aid of our new tanks and would bring about conciliatory peace favorable to us."

The division staff officer revealed it was opinion of the military caste in Germany that but for untoward events Germany, after a successful termination of the present struggle, would have industries in shape to furnish war material to both sides in a hypothetical war between the United States and Japan, and then, "after both sides had become exhausted, would have joined hands with one country to crush the other."

Japan and United States to Clash. "The officer said, 'Japan and the United States would surely clash some day and we would then furnish both sides with enormous quantities of material and munitions. We would have extinguished our debt, armed ourselves and at the moment when the two parties were exhausted would have joined one of them, probably Japan, and would have imposed conditions which we are unable to obtain at this time.'

"The sole hope that remains to me is that the present German retreat offers nothing but a feint to sow discord into camps of allies and to gain time to reassemble and regroup our forces."

Nuxated Iron. "To help make strong, keen, red-blooded Americans there is nothing in my experience which I have found so valuable as organic iron—Nuxated Iron," says Dr. James Francis Sullivan, formerly physician of Bellevue Hospital (Out-door Dept.), New York. Clin. (Retired), the drummer boy of the Westchester County Hospital, Shiloh, who was sergeant in the U. S. Cavalry in two wars, and now being used by over three million people annually, including such men as our great druggists everywhere.—Advertisement.
